

Dear
Congressperson,

My family and I are Tamil Americans originally from Sri Lanka from your district. We are very concerned with the situation in Sri Lanka and believe that the United States has an important role to play in assuring that Sri Lanka respects the rights of all and does not discriminate based on ethnicity, religion or language. I am grateful that the US has led so many resolutions at the UN Human Rights Council, restricts military assistance to Sri Lanka and gives generous aid to war-affected areas of the North-East.

I think the US should be doing more to push Sri Lanka towards peace, prosperity and equality with dignity for all. Please join the Congressional Caucus on Ethnic & Religious Freedom led by Reps. Danny Davis (D-IL) & Bill Johnson (R-OH) to add your voice to the call for change in Sri Lanka. Please contact Laura Wilson in Rep. Johnson's office to join.

Thank you for your kind interest.

Sincerely
